Regarding Food Service Permits in Whitman County:

- Permits must be renewed annually to continue operating.
- Renewals are sent out at the beginning of the calendar year, and permits expire January 31 of each year.
- Establishments are classified based on operation type and risk category of menu and process. Permit fees are set by the Whitman County Board of Health and are subject to change each year.
- The initial plan review and pre-opening inspection is accompanied by a plan review fee.
- Permits are not transferable. If your operation relocates, or changes business name/owner, the new operation is subject to fees for plan review and reinstatement of permit
- Food service establishments are inspected once every 6-18 months depending on risk category. These are known as Routine Inspections. Please note the Food Enforcement Procedure found here:
https://www.whitmancountypublichealth.org/uploads/9/4/9/8/94983524/food_enforcement_procedure.pdf
- Failed inspections are put into a compliance schedule. Repeat failed inspections may cause forced closure on the restaurant until back into compliance.
- Any significant changes in menu, ownership, equipment or facility must be reviewed and approved by Whitman County Public Health.

3. Food Service Establishment Application

Sketch the top view (overhead) of your kitchen in the box below (or attach plans of facility). Identify and label features including: hand wash facilities, cooking equipment, hot and cold holding equipment, refrigeration, worktables and preparation areas, storage areas, sanitizing solution bucket locations and serving areas. Fill out the check list below, accurately assessing what kitchen features are present in your facility.

Frequency of Pickup		Enclosure material (i.e. fenced, locked, not enclosed, etc.)
Floor Surface (i.e. concrete, asphalt, etc.)		Description of drain (i.e. sloped to drain, drained to sewer, etc.)

8. Commissary Kitchen (if applicable)

If you are not using your own commissary (you are preparing food off-site from the service area), a written and signed Commissary Agreement must be provided (request official commissary agreement form from Whitman County Public Health). If the commissary is not currently approved, the kitchen must go through the Commissary Kitchen Approval process by contacting Whitman County Public Health for a pre-opening inspection and permit. Commissaries in other counties or states may be utilized so long as proof of permit and approval from the Local Health Jurisdiction is provided, and the Commissary Agreement is provided.

All mobile units and catering operations must have an approved commissary. If you are not using or required to have a commissary – disregard this section.
